2007 THIRD PLACE

Paulina Martinez
The tectonic character is found in the interweaving of the three different bands. These weaving to the interior of the market but at the same time stretching out thus creating openings which are the different entrances and the light and ventilation source of the market.