POP^{UP}py Market annual bloom

Meander through, a field of Red.
A market place, a flower field.
History rich, community.
Planting an endless unity.

The individual craft spread.
Urban fabric, communal thread.
Create a new ecology.
Meander through...

Field of Red, not to be misread.
Local identity, urban spread.
Diverse in opportunity.
A marketplace for all to be.
Program crafted to be dispread.
Meander through...

vol: 1

Follow the ghost of John McCrae as he re-imagines a plan for his home city of Guelph!

Using his time mystical bulbs John is able to peer back in time..When he opens a window to historical Guelph he is in for a surprise that radically changes how he sees Guelph!

Yikes!

Hey everyone...
Happy to see you all...
How about we go back to Guelph and say hello to everyone!

Without knowing it, John McCrae opened several time bulbs at once! Although he only tried to open one window in time, there was so much history embedded into the site that all of these historical figures erupted at once!

Overwhelmed, John tried to take control of the chaos. With some quick thinking and using his rank, McCrae tried to remind these figures where they came from.

Unimpressed with McCrae's charade the soliders eagerly tried to escape their time!

POOF!

Who do you think you are?!
We're out of here, lets go boys!

I'll use the 529 to wrangle up as many Guelphians as I can!

Yes Sir Lieutenant! I'm on

POOF!

POOF!

Pixelize em Chief!

BLAM! BLAM!

If those soldiers don't want to go back home I'll just have to plant them back into the site!

Meanwhile...

Overnight, as the poppies bloom..the planted pixelizations of the embodied soldier's spirits emmerge and populate the field!

woo hoo!

I feel so alive!

lets party like its 1882!

The shade feels so nice!

Its warm under here!
